Ships are sailing all over the waves	step in a circle after each other in one direction
Ships are sailing all over the sea	step in a circle after each other in another direction
Aside and there, in front and side, there hop	faces to the center and step aside, the other feet there, the right foot in front, aside and back together. A little jump with toes on the ground en heels up.
lalalalalala lalala ...	hop forward and backward with legs alternating
